DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

1. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(e) the invention was described in (1) an application for patent, published under section 122(b), by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent or (2) a patent granted on an application for patent by another filed in the United States before the invention by the applicant for patent, except that an international application filed under the treaty defined in section 351(a) shall have the effects for purposes of this subsection of an application filed in the United States only if the international application designated the United States and was published under Article 21(2) of such treaty in the English language.

2. Claims 13, 14, 16, 17, 19, 21, and 23 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(e) as being anticipated by Adachi et al. (US 6,769,473).

Regarding claims 13, 14, 19, and 23 (see column 20, lines 29-56; column 26, lines 38-54; and Figures 21 and 32), Adachi et al. disclose the method for producing a magnesium alloy slurry comprising the steps of pouring molten magnesium metal onto a tilted cooling jig (1,20) (see Figures 21 and 32). The jig is vibrated (column 5, lines 3-5) and is maintained in a semi-solid state, which is lower than a liquidus temperature and higher than a solidus temperature. As shown in Figures 21 and 32, the jig is arranged at an angle between 20 to 80 degrees. Regarding claims 16, 17, and 21, Adachi et al. disclose a tilted cooling body (1,20) (see Figures 21 and 32), such that the device or cooling body is capable of producing a magnesium alloy at temperatures lower than a liquidus state and above a solidus state, which defines a semi-solid state.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

3. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

4. This application currently names joint inventors. In considering patentability of the claims under 35 U.S.C. 103(a), the examiner presumes that the subject matter of the various claims was commonly owned at the time any inventions covered therein were made absent any evidence to the contrary. Applicant is advised of the obligation under 37 CFR 1.56 to point out the inventor and invention dates of each claim that was not commonly owned at the time a later invention was made in order for the examiner to consider the applicability of 35 U.S.C. 103(c) and potential 35 U.S.C. 102(e), (f) or (g) prior art under 35 U.S.C. 103(a).

5. Claims 15, 18, 20, and 22 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Adachi et al. (US 6,769,473) in view of Adachi et al. (US 6,165,411).

Regarding claims 15 and 20, Adachi et al. (US '473) discloses the claimed invention above, but is silent to removing supernatant. However, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art to remove the supernatant prior to casting, in order to avoid any impurities. Regarding claims 18 and 22, Adachi et al. (US '473) discloses the claimed invention, but is silent with respect to a heat-resistant control bar and a control bar driver.

However, Adachi et al. (US '411) disclose a thermocouple 36 (see Figure 8) with inherently a driver to descend into the tundish 1 for the purpose of controlling the melt (column 12, lines 18-34; and Figure 8).

Therefore, it would have been obvious to one of ordinary skill in the art at the time the applicants' invention was made to include a thermocouple, as taught by US '411, into the teachings of US '473, in order to control the melt (US '411; column 12, lines 18-34).

Response to Arguments

6. The examiner acknowledges the applicants' amendment and Information Disclosure Statement (IDS) received by the USPTO on March 25, 2008. The IDS of March 25, 2008 has been considered and initialed, and a copy is provided with this Office Action. The applicants have cancelled claims 1-12, and have added new claims 13-23. Claims 13-23 are currently under consideration in the application.

7. Applicants' arguments with respect to claims 1-12 (which were cancelled and replaced in favor of new claims 13-23) have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

8. Applicants' amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP

§ 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.

Any inquiry concerning this communication or earlier communications from the examiner should be directed to Dr. Kevin P. Kerns whose telephone number is (571)272-1178. The examiner can normally be reached on Monday-Friday from 8:00am-5:00pm.
